How To Fight Wildfires...

About six Western states have wildfires burning at this writing. Some are 0% 'contained'. Severe drought has worsened both the fire conditions & firefighting too.

Most everyone is familiar with Smokey The Bear urging us to put out campfires properly, so wildfires don't occur. Overall, that's a good thing. But...

Turns out nature herself has a way of dealing with wildfires that the public is generally unaware of. It's called the Fire Regime.

It's what happens naturally if nature is allowed to take her course. It's when lightning strikes kindle ground fires in forests, which burn away the lower brush, fallen limbs & cypress that clogs the forest floor, clearing the way for newer vegetation for animals.

When this occurs, it spares the great canopy fires (tree tops) that destroy the entire forest! Fires that burn the forest floor are healthy. Fires that burn the tops, or canopies, destroy the forest!

Crews from out of the area come in, in order to get wildfires under control. The same holds true in this article!

Crews from war torn lands have arrived to help squelch wildfires nearly out of control in our beloved nation - though these most often go unnoticed... The people and the wildfires!

One is Brigette Gabriel, a woman who grew up in Lebanon - among bombs - just as in Gaza today. She's created ACT for America!

Another is also of Lebanese descent. Joseph Farah has one of the top news sites on the internet - WorldNetDaily.

There's D'nesh Dsouza, whose movie AMERICA, and book, tops the bestseller lists. He's from India and cherishes our nation. no reservations.

All three of these people concur wildfires are almost out of control in our society, and that the American people are largely asleep. Their message is unanimous- warning all - Awake! Trouble is crouching at every door...1

Right now, those wildfires can be squelched - perhaps - on the surface floors. Damage may be limited if we take action now! If not, we'll pay the highest price possible!

Hitler changed the laws of Germany to form his future agenda. Sound familiar...?

In the 60's Chicago became a seedbed for communism. Out of it came today's leaders in Wash. D.C. Yes! Michele's parents, & Kathleen Sebelius' parents, were instrumental in forming the communist platform. Our Prez' parents were communist, and he was tutored by an active Chicago party member, Frank Davis. They 3 gravitated together in the late 80's to construct a new path for America!

Today, liberal think tank' groups in Wash. are all led by communists! One internet site reports over 50 communist congressmen, naming them!

Our two-party system is now infiltrated & dismantled, creating a one party system morphed into communism, by default! Especially with weak Republican leadership!

Is this compounded by the fact half of all congressmen are now millionaires? 'Come to Congress & get rich quick!' Imagine that.

The White House now has 43 czars. Most are foreign or communist. Look them up. Most have no experience in their field! Science, technical?

All this says one thing- our nation is corrupt-especially by greed - just as in Jeremiah's day... prophets, priest, kings & princes! 2 Note that both church & state are included.

Why did Former Sec of State Madeline Albright, Dem. say recently, 'The world is a mess?' Her voice echoes ours! Leadership in the world is absent us.

Have you wondered why America has 1,000's of illegals streaming across our borders? Jobs are lost? Businesses are closed?

Because - Chaos is the order of the day.

Those at the helm are not incompetent. They have an agenda! A one-world - global - system. AMERICA must fall before that & you must fall for their delusion first!... By doing nothing! That's the easy part! We've been doing that all along!

It's incumbent upon you to find out what's happening! Here it is: A coup is planned and trial balloons are being sent up prior to it. Hear me now...

What kind of backlash are wannabe dictators getting from Y.O.U.? Don't look back in regret... How will you face your children?

These trial balloons are a 'test' of Americans' will to stand against evil. Is there no protest to scandalous remarks like the "I have a phone & a pen", or "American history is rich with the contributions of Muslims." Not until 9/11/01!

Want a Hitler repeat? Just do nothing! Your voice can be mighty only if you use it. Fight fire with fire! Set a WILDFIRE on the phones in Wash. D.C. at every gaffe / topic / lie! Create phone banks in your homes! 1 call represents 600 voters' voices! Enlist your neighbors' help.

SAY SOMETHING!
BE SILENT NO MORE, thus permitting evil to triumph over "our"
A. M. E. R. I. C. A.

"I'm not a sinner. I'm a good person," you say? Then you'll have to go to Hell because Jesus came to save sinners. He didn't come to save good people.

Nothing can be more cruel than the leniency which abandons others in their sins. Nothing can be more compassionate than the severe reprimand which calls another back from the path of sin. Bonhoeffer

Dietrich Bonhoeffer inspires me, so I've used a lot of his quotes this month. He was a pastor in WWII under Hitler's era. He is quoted often today, thanks to his great insight.

A step ahead of most Germans, Dietrich had read Mein Kampf in the early to mid 30's, and understood the eugenics that Hitler planned to use to achieve his Master Race. Hitler's rise was not overnight, but steady, gaining more and more ground while the Germans largely turned a blind eye – caught up - just like we are in our daily living.

Except for the Jews.

Racial hatred was being fueled in the media and via Hitler's speeches. Crowds turned against the Jews who were said to have all the money, businesses & wealth, robbing other Germans of equal opportunity, they felt.

Dietrich led a small church, and taught at a university until he was stopped. Then he went underground, helping German Christians to help the Jews escape harm's way. His group planned a failed assassination of Hitler; he was imprisoned; then killed just weeks before war's end.

Oddly, Dietrich himself was a prime example of their proposed Aryan race...tall, blond, blue eyes and as fit as a soccer player.

What made Dietrich Bonhoeffer special & even today? I think it was because he had no fear. Of Hitler. Of imprisonment. Of death.

Friends, Dietrich made a decision up front, that you and I will have to make down the line – if not now. *He set his mind to trust God only!*³

Who are you going to trust? Will it be that the gov't won't run out of money? Will it be that your health won't fail...?

Will you trust in your garden? Or the grocery aisle – which empty out in the first 3 days of any crisis, including hurricanes?

Somewhere along the line, you must decide. Because the days are coming that will demand such a decision.

Dietrich was committed to love the Truth of God, no matter what. What, you say? Look at him! He went to prison; he was killed there!

True. Yet why is he still regarded a folk hero?

Perhaps because he didn't regard his life unto death. ⁴ He worked to save others, risking his own safety... Like Jesus did, Who 'for the joy set before Him endured the cross.'⁵ -we need to emulate.

The 'end of the world' comes for you, the day you die... Not out there! Jesus died for you! Choose to LIVE for Him daily...!

Depression – Is It Real?

Dear Agatha: I don't know what is wrong with me. I seem to have everything that others want –a nice home, cars, and wonderful family - yet I feel empty. Worse, I feel terribly alone. My husband doesn't understand what the matter is – he just says it's self-pity, and I need to buck up and realize how good I have it! Wish I could. My kids, a girl 9 and a boy 11, are great, but I can hardly pull myself together to drive them to after school events. What's happening to me? Doris

Dear Doris: Well, you've been married awhile it seems, but this is more than mere 'doldrums' in my mind.

At the risk of sounding clinical, I'd like to suggest you get a physical exam. Women often have hormone issues. I am not trivializing your life by any means. This is a serious issue for women, especially nearing menopause. Did you know your body naturally dumps potassium just prior to your period each month? And this greatly affects PMS? Just have that area checked first.

Depression saps your energy level, leaving you tired and dragging. You need daily women's vitamins to fight this.

I had a dear friend, like you, whose fatigue drove her to God for answers. Turned out it was God calling her...!

Sometimes priorities get twisted. If I asked you what it is you think about most, what would you say? Your answer is tell-tale because 'out of the heart the mouth speaks.' And whatever has your attention, has you! Idols surface here!

God requires top priority! ⁵ You'll be happier, too.

Some folks, when they come to God, experience no change in their life. I question the validity of their encounter! The gospel message is about changed lives! God cares about your joy level, Doris. But He summons us 'higher' than just boring routine. It's exciting to know the True and Living God. READ His word.

Reject mere religion- man's puny rules - & enter into a relationship with God Himself!

Next, Focus. Realize that the first sin of mankind was when he took his eyes off all that was his, placing them onto one thing that wasn't! Be grateful for health, wealth, & the good things you have.

Then, seek a therapist. But I think God will help you...

Nobody would be a better president than Barack Obama.

Seriously, if nobody was president it would be better than having Barack Obama.
