“Drowning in Nonsense”

Under political correctness, no one ‘wins’ anymore. Some feel that graduation ceremonies should not award 4.0 students titles – it might hurt the other students’ feelings. So other students should work hard all year long...for nothing? No acknowledgment whatever?

Imagine with me, that you are a parent of a young soldier who served in Iraq, and he died there a hero, in the city of Mosul – for freedom for all. Mosul is now a trophy of ISIS – all the Christians killed or beheaded. So... your son died for what?

Illegals cross their foot over the U.S. border & gain immediate access to the same benefits that our veterans must wait one year.

Christmas vacation can no longer be called CHRISTmas; just the ‘winter holiday.’

On June 26, 2011 over 1500 churches across the U.S. all welcomed Imams of Islam to worship with them in a semblance of “unity”, dubbed Chrislam. They read from the Quran in the pulpit and in the pews... professing that ‘we all worship the same God.’ No.

Finally, after Hamas rebels were exposed & defeated for building tunnels to kidnap & kill Israelis, the U.S. just sent Abbas, head of PLO, $417 Billion to rebuild...probably not used for infrastructure, but more tunnels! So, we’re funding terror against Israel!

900+ Muslim Brotherhood have been sentenced to death in Egypt! Yet Retired Gen. McInerney, says there are now 10-15 Muslim Brotherhood working in the White House & DHS! Besides the fact 38 terrorist camps now exist inside the U.S....

All this provoked talk-show host Schnitz to say America is ‘drowning in nonsense’ and ignoring the rule of law.

However, ‘where sin abounds, grace abounds much moreso’¹ So, we must not lose hope! Current events provide a needed self-assessment to thinking people... 2

God’s people are not left without remedy in such times. But you may never have experienced it quite like this...

A video appeared this week on Facebook, the true story of a typhoon approaching a small village in the Phillipines, captured on a cell phone. A church gathering saw a huge funnel cloud headed straight for them. They began to pray.

But this was no ordinary prayer meeting! Their lives & family & possessions hung in the balance... They cried out to the God of mercy for help.

There was no uncertainty, or sentence prayers, or ‘if it be thy will’ prayers. They called with a certainty God was there, that He cared, that He heard their cries. They cited His wonder and great might. They prayed in English, their own language and in tongues. In the background, women wailed as though giving birth!

The entire video was under four minutes, as the funnel drew nearer & nearer. About the 3 minute segment, that funnel began to diminish. But they did not stop crying out to God! Then as it became apparent it was dissipating altogether, praises rang out “Glory to God!” to One who loves & cares for His people; whose face is turned toward those who fear Him. 3 A people who walk in His righteousness by faith, and in a moment of great trial, could call upon Him and be heard by Him.

Friends, a funnel cloud – no a tsunami – is headed our way because our nation has turned its back on God. God & His word are wholly castigated from the marketplace and the public arena. Those who still love His Truth are being flogged by liberals & the LGBT mafia. Good is called evil. 4

That is why everywhere we look there is ‘confusion & every evil work.’⁵ God has lowered the hedge of protection we’ve enjoyed for over 200 years... when we embraced what is good, right and true. Not reject it.

Fact is, we deserve judgment. But the Truth is, that God remains merciful to the end! He still saves...

There is a caveat here though - a huge one. Where are those who will travail? Those who believe God? It’s long past wishy-washy sentence prayers, and timid ‘if it be thy will’ ...too little, too late when people are dying, or are about to! America summons those who know their God!⁶

Scripture tells us 2 or 3 times to lift up our hands. But 150 times, it says we should ‘lift up our voices’. God wants to hear what we have to say, Friends!

But if we don’t cry out for America as those folks in that Phillipine church did that day, America is all but lost...You can write that down & sign it God, Dear Ones. All pretense must be gone; all consideration of what others think, gone! Cry out for your children the same way... & for souls lost! 7 Do not fear. Pray.

Critics say socialist Saul Alinsky is the mentor of our current President and of Hillary Clinton, who wrote her college thesis about his book Rules For Radicals. But, who was His mentor? A hint is in the front of that book, in part –“to the very 1st radical, from all our legends, mythology & history...the 1st radical who rebelled against the establishment & did it so effectively that he at least won his own kingdom. Lucifer.”

Human nature doesn’t allow most folks to imagine such colossal changes can happen to them or their country. So they do nothing. Unknown

THE TWO MOST MISGUIDED NOTIONS HELD IN AMERICA

1. Our Government wouldn't really do that to us.
2. If they did, they would tell us about it on TV.

The need to educate yourself has never been greater!

"Never..."

Your miracle is on the other side of your worship...it's on the other side of your praise!

Vicki Yohe

"I don't pay attention to politics..." Well it's paying attention to YOU! When you allow gov't leaders to commit crimes in your name, without questioning their actions, you are just as guilty as they are...

If you haven't seen America The Movie, you're ill-informed!

Recently I sat in a group of about a dozen people who listened to a man who spoke about the dynamics of communication.

During his talk, he showed a video of about eight youth who stood in a line facing the camera, some of which held basketballs. Four wore white tee shirts and four wore black. We were to count how many times the boys in white tossed the ball as they moved around the gym, tossing it each other. The answer came up on the screen right after. It was thirteen times. A couple of people got it right.

However, we were asked if we noticed the moon-walking bear on the screen. We sat dumbfounded. No one did! He played it again, and from left to right, a bear with big ears danced slowly across the screen. He was even slightly taller than any of the players. Smile...

The point of the video was, we don't see what we aren't looking for! I've pondered that video a lot since then. Jesus used this principle when He described the Kingdom of God. It's a spiritual entity.

We live in the natural, so spiritual things remain shrouded from clarity...unless we're looking for them! "Except you are born again, you cannot SEE the Kingdom of God..." 8 We are hard-wired for God, because 'He placed eternity in our hearts.'9 Yet the natural world is so very tangible, exciting our 5 senses, so we are led by them, only.

Yet God says He took great pains in creating what is tangible, 10 to reveal the intangible – His power and His deity –we're w/o excuse!

Yet, we can remain dull to the spirit world that surrounds us - full of spiritual truth. No moon-walking bears perhaps, but truth ripe for the taking right in front of our eyes. Until the time comes we need help outside ourselves. It's then we turn to the supernatural... thus trials are a blessing! Our eyes become opened to truth.

Nothing has ever so impacted my own life as when I learned of the 3rd person of the Godhead –the Holy Spirit and His role in my life. He brings animation to the whole of life! He opens my eyes - not to what I want - but what I need. His role is to teach, lead, guide, comfort & remind me. We need that! 11 We can trust the leading of the Holy Spirit in my life! Like Dwight Moody, I get up and give my day to God - Then I go out and act like He has it! By faith, he directs our path.

Does God Pick and Choose...?

Dear Agatha: I have to admit that I don't pray much anymore...I just don't feel God hears my prayers. When my husband & I lost our little girl to leukemia, I just quit. I want to believe & I see others get their prayers answered. But I'm bitter and resent them and God too, Who seems to pick & choose who He listens to. We still go to church but it is mechanical to me – I go only for the children's sake. Is there something I'm missing? Please help me to believe again...Fran

Dearest Fran: Your request is staggering, Fran. But I trust the Holy Spirit to speak. The word that comes to me at once is, Focus. I can't tell you why this happened to you or your family But I've lived long enough to learn that people who lose a child sometimes so grieve their loss that the entire family becomes fractured. It's understandable. Divorce often follows as well.

I'm only using this to illustrate how, when our priorities shift; we can become unfocused. I can't imagine your grief, but I do know human frailty is often to dwell on the negatives and not on what remains.

I recommend you find a GriefShare Group for personal healing and it's principles will benefit your entire family. It has been a great benefit to many and is available in many churches.

You admit it holds you captive. Bitterness defiles many, the Bible says. It's unforgiveness gone to seed. Pull it out by its roots-Forgive!

Forgive yourself any guilt feelings. Forgive others involved in her loss. Forgive God...He remains good despite this matter. Best, you can join her where she is...!

Then, Focus. List all your blessings...or what remains. Health, wealth, family, friends, flowers...You'll be amazed! Talk to God & cast ALL your cares upon Him, knowing HE cares for you.12 He can take your mess & give you a message...He has a great work for you, helping others find wholeness!

Your other children merit your full attention & need to be prepared for the future! You must care for them on an emotional level too. A hug speaks a 1000 words, Friend. There is Grace -Sweet Grace - for you if you will reach for it!
