REALLY?

You still trust the Government?

It was about 5 years after I was baptized before the pull of sin finally stopped.

Beloved, test every spirit... Hereby we know the spirit of Truth from the spirit of error, if they will not hear us. 1 John 4

"Don't pray for an easy life. Pray for the strength to endure a difficult one." -Bruce Lee

Amerika... the Beautiful

The concept of America began as an idea. An idea where a man would be able to choose his own destiny, unhindered by outside influences, or by gov't interference. It was a fresh concept borne from a world where kings & dictators & warlords reigned.

It was where freedom could prevail. This concept fascinated people all over the earth, compelling them to come to her shores by any means possible. America is for dreamers and they're still arriving! FREEDOM attracts because the idea was God's.¹ Like Esau who didn't value his birthright & let it slip away - we have not valued our birthright - freedom! 2

"America has changed," so Franklin Graham said recently. How? I present you a study in contrasts so you may see where our nation is headed. For those who think it's all negative, then I say ... it's all negative.

It's time we faced reality!

I want to dispel every notion that America is what it used to be! It just isn't anymore.

1. Just a few decades ago, the premiere city of prosperity and industrialization was Detroit, Mich. Today it is a literal shambles where police have stopped answering calls for help in some areas. (See back photo.) This week it was named the leading city for poverty in the U.S. out of ten.

2. Something called posse comitatus has protected states rights since our founding. It kept the long arm of the fed gov't from interfering - from invading or trampling citizens' rights. No matter! A dozen states are experiencing that long arm through unexplained 'military exercises' this entire summer. It used to be that only martial law could dissolve this policy. But not anymore.

3. Foxholes have been

Soldiers' place of prayer in war. Yet today, a military chaplain isn't permitted to tell a dying soldier in a hospital the way of salvation. Or mention Jesus! Many are leaving the military for this reason. What better way to purge our army of good men & women...? Many career officers have been purged already. This week, Congress voted to cut veterans' pensions by 20%...!

4. Upon seeing her bumper sticker that said If You Are Not Outraged, You're Not Paying Attention, a man told a friend he was outraged at all that is happening in our nation. The problem is, he told her was democrat! His every vote was a stamp of approval on what he scorned - gov't corruption - yet he was oblivious to his role in it!

5. During WWII, the Japanese attacked the U.S. Right or wrong, their homes & businesses were confiscated & they were placed in camps because we were under siege. In contrast, though we were attacked on 9/11/01, our borders remain fluid as illegals & God knows whom, flood our borders. Moreover, we're importing 60,000 Syrians to settle in Utah: and thousands of Chinese to Oregon... Our government now invites our enemies in - without the need of a Trojan Horse - and WERE PAYING THE BILL!

6. Billy Graham says that wherever the gospel's gone in the earth, civilization emerges with greater women's rights, hospitals & freedom for the masses. Bibles aren't permitted in schools, but prisons give them out? Bibles were once primers in all schools - but no more! Ivy League colleges were started by Christians & at orientation, a copy of the Constitution was handed out.

Today? It's safe sex kits...!

7. Theodore Shoebat, an expert on Islam, said it was announced this week that jihadists can now join our U.S. military in Syria to be better trained to fight Assad. Wait! Isn't this how ISIS started...?

8. It's too complicated to detail here, but the UN just released a world constitution that details restrictions on guns plus world courts to resolve differences (superceding our Constitution) & a plethora of other things, with full U.S. agreement... U.N.'s part in Jade Helm 15 this summer is sinister.

When we expelled God, we became vile! Most amazing? Are people incensed? No. Ignorance and apathy prevails.

Some people fear ISIS. Yet the real thing to fear is right here. In. The. U.S.A. Recently, Col. Allen West said 55 members of the House are communists. Eugene McCarthy was wrong it turns out! Studies show there were far more communists than he thought! ISIS is their tool to usher in OneWorldGov't & Jade Helm 15 will usher in the civil chaos necessary.

Where's it all leading? Dave Hodges" of Common SenseShow.com says first, there'll be food shortages, then food riots, then a plea from the public for martial law. I hope you hear me...violence will only increase! Don't bother looking to 2016 elections - martial law severs that.

What to do? No spiritual blarney here! Get your nose in the Bible and discover what God says about all this! Then if an avalanche of suffering does come, don't throw away your hope- it's our anchor..

Oh wait, that's DETROIT.

"I turned from my wicked ways, & embraced Jesus. The next thing I knew, good times had come my way.

I appeal to you therefore...that you no longer live as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds, alienated from the life of God thru the ignorance in them...Ephes 4:17

Happy, Happy, Happy

I have heard countless pastors, maybe even yours, explain how becoming a believer does not promise 'happiness.' They simply could not be more wrong. In fact, the Sermon on the Mount says many times that people who obey God are Blessed! 3 "Blessed" means to 'surround with favor, to be happy.' I'm weary of this. Here's why:

I lived the half of my life, doing my own thing, making my choices with no restraints. The result? Disaster and battlefields of my own making! I didn't even need activity of the devil in my life – my own foul decisions were enough!

Broken relationships of every order, including jobs, followed me until I learned to make better choices in life. And that didn't happen on my own. I floundered over and over. I had no parental guidance, and I had no 'ears to hear' sound counsel.

But...a new day came when I chose to permit God into my life, and to listen to HIS counsel. Suddenly, wisdom became mine! 4 Why? Impulsiveness and petulance were tamed. I learned to wait Patience that had never been mine manifested. Better choices became normal. I found a plumbline! It was holy scripture, and I learned to partake daily.

People who are alive get hungry – it's a sure sign of life! I found the Bread of Life! 5

One of the best things I did was memorize Psalm One. It describes the result of people who meditate in the scriptures day and night. Now I asked myself, WHY would anyone ever want to meditate in scripture that much, as the author King David admonished readers to do?

I soon found my answer. Instead of viewing the law of God as restrictive, David saw it another way. It served to save him from the consequences of sin. And they really happen! Sin has consequences, now & later!

A major consequence is the need for a just & holy God (who loved mankind) to bridge the gap between man who was hopelessly lost and Himself. Sin is wicked and hateful & totally against God's holy nature... but Jesus accepted the role of Savior in our behalf, taking our punishment! Faith in this work is our ticket out of hell, and you'd better have one! Without it, you're lost! Yes. Be sure you have one today!

Burn This On Our Hearts, Lord...!

Dear Agatha: I have two grown children, both girls, & 2 toddler grandchildren. Both girls are college grads & are married to men they met there. I'm grateful they all are believers & go to church. A problem though is, in spite of all this, they party with neighbors and drink a lot. One couple are building a new home; the other is restoring an old historic home. For me as their parent is...I don't see much difference in them & the world that's unsaved! What can I do to impress the need for Godliness in all our lives?

Anna

Dear Anna: A missionary from the Phillipines was invited to an Australian church. He spoke on the imminent return of Christ in the clouds. When he closed, listeners stood & gave him rapturous applause.

However, as he walked down the aisle to depart, several people stopped to engage him. One couple explained their son had just won a full scholarship to a marvelous college—they didn't want Jesus to come just now!

Another couple said they'd just finished building their house & had great plans for its use to win souls – they didn't want Jesus to come until later on...

Several people said this.

Jesus told us plainly that people would be pre-occupied with their own lives "marrying & giving in marriage, building and planning" when the Son of man returns. Too busy ... Just as it was in the days of Noah, and in the days of Lot.- People died then...unaware!

I want to tell you something, Anna. And I pray God burns it on all our hearts! This life is short. It's the next one that counts! America has changed... so our lives have changed! The future you once saw is not there...your plans are in vain -unless your focus IS on what He's doing!

Our plans may not be worth diddly squat in a year or two. You say, what if I'm wrong? I hope I am wrong! There's no glory in being right about this! Anna, too many people are worried for family, lifestyle, & livelihood. But our primary concern now should be that we KNOW the Lord, and tell loved ones the heavenlies are about to be unleashed. Get a burden for souls –that's all you'll be able to take to heaven..

Short answer? Warn them.
