Speaking the TRUTH in love.
Let us grow up... Ephes. 4:15

Flashpoint...To The Future?

War has a long history, as long as mankind. Some vilify it; some justify it -but I go with what scripture says about it.

It says "there is a time for war."¹ That means that principles matter, and we must defend our own peace and safety - virtues to any society. War-mongers live among us who often try to rob others as a spoil.

Our pastor preached a timely message Sunday, on suffering. It happens to all, due to a fallen world. Plus our own wrong choices. Yet Christians suffer too, because we represent Him on earth and He was hated.

If you are alive, then you will suffer sooner or later. The epitome of suffering is war! Those who've been there say, 'war is hell...'

Yet war is a part of life for many people even world wars. WWI was supposed to be the last world war. But, we found ourselves in another just 30+ years later with the same country! Since then, we have dreaded a WWII ever occur, due to nuclear power!

2016 appears to be shaping up for more war and ...more suffering! Scripture says a prudent man foresees the future and prepares for it - the wicked go on and are destroyed.² Let's take a look.

The Mideast has been a cauldron of unrest ever since the U.S. toppled Saddam Hussein in Iraq. Until then, Iraq and Iran were the two superpowers of that region, though they constantly warred with each other. Yet the two of them kept the balance that held Muslim nations in line. When Iraq fell, that left the generally hated Iran in charge. Iran's been behind most mischief since then, even the fall of Yemen..

Then Syria became the focal point when the U.S. decided to topple King Assad.

The U.S. then funded & armed rebels who stirred up a conflict uprooting millions, unable then to live in a Warfield. This created the current migration elsewhere.

Meantime, much of the rebel army that we built and trained migrated over to ISIS. They then took over half of Syria & half of Iraq, historic cities we'd fought & died for.

Just recently - Russia who is sympathetic to Assad- built airstrips in Syria and placed 150,000 boots on the ground. Now, Chinese, UK & French planes are gathered, aiming to take on & destroy ISIS.

Putin is directing the bombing of long lines of oil tanker trucks with smoke billowing for miles. Why? Turkey is buying ISIS oil (thus funding ISIS' reign of terror). These trucks are headed there. They're also bombing rebels of Assad. That would be the rebels we've armed...

Many of these Syrian rebels migrated over to ISIS for a salary paid by George Soros & his ilk. His goal is for refugees to migrate to the U.S. changing the voter base & keeping socialists in power.

Soros has now formed a counterfeit 'conservative' group in U.S, using Reagan quotes to win over simple-minded conservatives! That site is AmericaisBetter.org. Don't be beguiled by their ads and flag waving youth on their site! Their front man? ...None other than Jeb Bush!

But Russia? They've banned his foundation there ... as a 'nat'l security threat!'

The U.S. on the other hand, is bombing ISIS too...but we drop leaflets & give them 45 minutes notice to warn them...so 'drivers' won't die. This is a practice vilified by Putin, calling it non-strategy & 'playing' with ISIS. Ironically... Putin is more believable to many Americans.

Added to this are the Paris shootings - while our Pres touts 'climate change' telling Parisians "shootings only occur in the U.S.! "Ridiculous - meriting the world's scorn!

The world is in chaos and Syria is a ticking time bomb! Now there's a move to take Syrian refugees in to the U.S. Newt Gingrich addressed this matter recently: It is MADNESS and SUICIDAL for a country to PAY to bring its enemies into its bosom!

Like a tragic stage play, the future unfolds before our very eyes. (Yet our God still reigns-~~that's~~ our message!³) But get ready! Suffering awaits us - birth pangs are closing in! ⁴

Our gov't is known to 'float' ideas in the media to get a read on the public's pulse ... tho stories aren't always true.

Could this be one? Last Friday, it was announced that the 1st FEMA camp (they're not supposed to exist!) was opened in Willcox, Az, said to hold "10,000 Americans." And by "2016 elections 12 more camps will open!+

Originally ordained by Congress HB 645 and many Exec. Orders, they were built for disasters, but now dubbed re-educational and death camps! Untrue? Or... the proverbial frog in the kettle?

Other tales in the media of late are spun by the likes of Whoopi Goldberg that 'Christians are more dangerous than ISIS.'

True or not, the structure for implementing this diabolic plan is in place. Jade Helm.

Early June showed many internet videos of 1,000's of jeeps/armor moving across our land. Not one has been seen going back to base...!

Like it or not, the New World Order is here! Like WWII Germany we merely observe...It just can't be true!

Yet time will reveal...

HE WANTED TO GET A SHOT OF THE LIGHTNING THAT WAS FLASHING BY.
HE WAS UNAWARE OF THE
TORNADO UNTIL THE LIGHTNING
ILLUMINATED IT.

Sheriff Arpaio has called for a 250k militia to fight ISIS – just the social unrest gov't awaits prior to martial law...

Question. Where better for lies to hide than inside today's "church." Except for the fact they don't hide! They're blatantly out there, yet too few people know enough scripture to be able to discern them. Make no mistake, Jesus loves the church 'and gave Himself up for her...' We do too-but much of what we see that is Finally, true worshippers glory in Christ Jesus. Not the

The genuine church is not one denomination. It is all who believe...and practice God's word! The true church is real and exists – We are family with sweet fellowship, united around the Word . 8

Yes, there IS corruption in the church. Always has been. But the real, the true, the genuine church is precious and glorious to God – without spot or blemish - Jesus will soon return for her. Be Alert!
