Take Your Brain With You...

I read a statement once that completely sums up the era in which we live! It is, Always follow your heart...but take your brain with you.

The dumbing down of America is now complete, with the new feelings generation colleges produce. You know it's really bad when every college offers remedial math and English in order to aid new students to come up to par with the norm. Didn't they learn this in elementary and high school? Apparently not! Has anybody noticed this besides me?

You are no doubt aware that the USA used to be the academic leader of the world. And colleges and universities still mill out degrees by the thousands, but it's no longer true they are a leader! The last I checked, we were 22nd in science and about 27th in the world in English. What happened? In a word, social engineering.

Public schools stopped majoring in teaching students and started molding their minds to conform to what someone perceived as 'norm' This mostly began to happen in the 70's and early 80's.

It's also when brighter students who asked too many questions began to be viewed as mavericks and troublemakers, and told to sit down and be quiet..

Foreign students still do remarkably well when paired against American students, but those students are more diligent in study & homework habits... not so party-minded.

I have talked to teachers who are themselves unaware of failing worldly statistics. Tenure keeps bad teachers in the vocation in public and in higher education. Thanks to the internet, I keep apprised of this info as well as states' performance too.

. Adam Horowitz is a famous attorney who defends college students who are belittled for their faith or resistance to the status quo in colleges & universities across the nation.

The objective of higher learning has always been to learn and to grasp new and challenging ideas, or at least to weigh their value. Not anymore! Critical thinking and deductive reasoning are out the window at higher learning institutions these days, where young people are now threatened with new ideas, and need a safe place to be free of them!

Sounds insane to me.

So parents send their offspring off to college where they accrue huge student debt and they come away with a degree....but often can't work in their field. Many millennials are still living in their parents' home.

The bottomline disastrous results of these decades of dumbing down is plain and simple – ignorance of the masses. In the beginning of this cycle, a thinker among men was raised up, and he captioned this era correctly: Nothing in all the world is more dangerous than sincere ignorance and conscientious stupidity. Martin L. King, Jr.

I'll give them that today's youth are sincere and they pursue their causes with passion. But they are empty of real understanding.

I went to college but didn't graduate...I didn't feel called to become a master of education. ;Yet I have always been a maverick who used my brain and have loved libraries since I was twelve. I have no credibility except that But I have spent 50 years as a student of the Bible, which I remind you, was the first primer teachers used in founding our nation!

Then, one time I sat in a church conference on the first row. Across the room also in the first row, was a well known woman for her leadership in our state. I saw her staring at me, and in the midst of a break, she got up and walked across the room to me where she bent down & laid her hands on my feet. She then said "These feet will walk on virgin soil." & walked back.

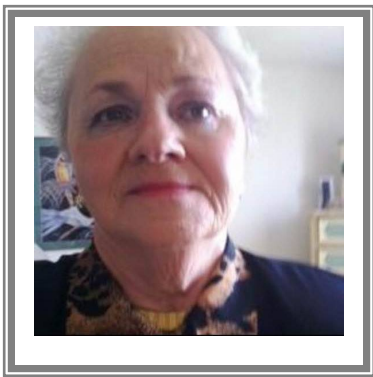

I have pondered those words for 40 years. I know this – to trample on in scripture means authority on, or to have dominion over. See Psalm 91:14.

But the other thing I know is, we are made of dust and to dust we will return. At this present time, the only virgin soil I'm aware of is brain matter.

Who am I? First, I am God's! Second, I'm the least of servants of His, but... I know He gave me another chance at life in November last year when I could've and should've died 3 times during open heart surgery. A spiritual friend saw me in her mind while I was intubated four days standing at an open door, with the choice of whether to walk thru it! I think I'm here to live out this prophecy over me... Time will reveal whether it's so!

I am a former street urchin and runaway who had little to no guidance in growing up. Or love. But in my search for Truth I discovered Love! God rescued me! Read my story in Answered By Fire on Amazon.

After 9/11 my book allowed me to be on dozens of talk radio shows. It was there I said over the airwaves, The Epitaph of America will be Ignorance.

*Most people don't have a clue how close we are to losing

I Hear No Whimpering....

Very little of life today is ordinary. The perilous times of stress Apostle Paul predicted are here!<sup>15</sup> Most every news story today is toxic, full of vitriol, or accusations.

It's not that different inside the church world – so many 'brands' of the Gospel! But leading pastors who preach from the Bible are exposing that darkness.<sup>16</sup> Pastor Allen Jackson of World Outreach Center said recently, "There is a perversion of the Gospel that is so rampant, that it is about to overwhelm the church." I say it has already! There are dangerous trends lighting a wildfire of error in too many churches! From false worship to doctrines of error in the pulpit, it spreads coast to coast. Pastor Dean Haun, of First Baptist Church in Morristown, Tn said Sunday, "We desperately need a revival" - talking about the church!

We shouldn't be surprised! Jesus warned deception would prevail before He returned.<sup>17</sup> Our nation is in crisis. Our nation's churches are askew, having lost their allegiance to the truth of scripture, following worldly trends dangerous to the church – leading followers astray.

Jesus loves the church, but it's not the one on the corner! It's not the organization but the organism, the remnant of believers – God always has a Remnant! ...

Look at it this way....every church I've attended over 50 years say, 20% of the members do 80% of the work. Is that about right the per cent of those are committed?

What can the average person do to stop the avalanche of darkness that threatens to rob us of our nation, and our children of their future...? And continue to mute an anemic church's voice? What will you say to your grandchildren when they ask, "What did you do when America fell... while the church stood silent...?"

NY State is pushing for new laws that provide abortion up until birth ..Are New Yorkers going to permit these laws to change without a whimper...? But, you can make a difference now in society while there is still time! First, surrender fully to God....

Here's what I do: 1.) I Meet regularly with like-minded folks, discussing needy or sick people, events, & politics 2.) Before meeting, we make sure our hearts are clean and we are free of unforgiveness. 3.) Then we pray! We unite our heart with the prayers of countless others everywhere doing likewise, amplifying our appeal to God, per Matt. 18:19. (God lets us SEE answers!) 4) We use the Keys to the Kingdom Jesus gave us in Matt. 16:16... 5.) Outside of that meeting, we are vocal and visible. We lift our VOICES to raise a Standard in society– for right & true!. 6.) We set the Example – of caring! 7.) We trust in God. Better to do something than to answer for nothing! Call your Reps in DC!

Learning to engage people effectively IS every believer's calling...Remember, the Highest thing we can do for someone is to pray for them. But! --put feet to your faith.

Fighting the Right Enemy

Dear Agatha: I live in the UK but travel to America a lot in business. I have become concerned lately about the hatred I see there. I understand it here with London now being called Islamabad, but it's grievous to me to see it in the USA also! What do you say Agatha is the root cause? Do you have any insight on this? Theo

Dear Theo: Well you did ask what the "root cause" in this was. It's complex, but I will try. This condition in the USA did not occur overnight! It has transitioned over decades. A lot of empty suits are out there, men and women. It isn't all their fault, yet everyone has their choices. It's societal, Our values did change when we kicked God out of the government, the marketplace, schools and elsewhere. We lost our base! We turned to humanism instead. That's a problem since relativism ...is relative!

It always varies...

But along the way came a thinker, named MLK, Jr. and he named the arising culprit He saw humanism entering our schools and higher learning colleges when he said, "Nothing in the world is more dangerous than sincere ignorance and conscientious stupidity." (Italics mine.)

Some years ago, after 9/11, I stated on radio talk shows that The Epitaph of America would be Ignorance It's not people's fault they didn't get a decent education! Or didn't have parents to guide them!

I learned from my friend & neighbor, Dr. Mamie Wilson, a professor of teachers, that in the 70's, teacher scores were lowered to accommodate population growth rates.

Those same teachers are now administrators who fill bowls with condoms in the counselor's offices. Or provide abortions for girls without their parents notice.

But it is our fault we let our great universities be taken over by liberals, who outnumber conservatives 7-1! Or that teachers are often now inferior (100's dismissed in Fla.2017--they failed over years to get students grades up!)

Educated liberals are quoted by media as the final say – But they're just ignorant of the facts, or choose to ignore them They & their backers.

How do you fight all this? The solution is simple but almost impossible ... if it wasn't for the 2016 election We must outnumber them. It's the only way I know of., short of a coup! PRAY. To educate voters.

.Winston Churchill said:.

It is in the region of ignorance
that tyranny begins.
