It is more a question with me,
who have the Gospel
and fail to give it to those who have not,
can be saved.

Do You Have A Teddy Bear Complex?

Did you know that you are invited to comprehend the incomprehensible...? Say Whaaat? How? Where?

To comprehend is to grasp mentally. To understand! If you don't know this, then you may not know the topic we are invited to grasp either...

It's L.O.V.E. It's in the New Testament where the Apostle Paul entreats everyone to understand God's Love.

What is so hard to understand about Love, anyway? Maybe it has to do with our own concept of God and how we see Him. Or that we see him in human terms, rather than Who. He. Is. Well...hold onto your seat and hear what that Biblical kind of love is.... Not like you've ever heard, no doubt.

Perhaps now is the best time to bring up 'why' you need to understand the Father's love as opposed to other kinds of love. Because there is fake love out there that will be used against you, that you need to beware of in future days and events!

First, the word love in the English language is not precise - it's fuzzy. I studied Greek and there are four words in that language for one little word -love.

Agape - God's love. Phileo -brotherly love. Storgae-love for family. Eros-erotic love; this one isn't in scripture.

In today's world, we love a new hairdo, or that dress, or the dessert they serve. Fuzzy
When it comes to God's love, Pastor Allen Jackson of World Outreach Church says:

"Some folks approach God as if He is simply a cuddly and comforting teddy bear-listening silently to every prayer. God is certainly approachable and loving, but it would be wrong to leave it at that incomplete understanding. We've all seen the aftermath of a racina fire that consumes everything— nothing but ash is left in its path. - the result of God's holiness when it encounters the sin of the world. We don't like to think of God this way, but it's important to have the complete picture....

This is our God - a God of Great love and a God of certain justice. Recognizing this, we want to live in a way that pleases Him and honors Him, so that we can anticipate His rewards rather than His judgment. He is a loving & holy God who cannot wink at sin."

The Apostle Paul prays that people "may be able to comprehend and to know the love of Christ, which passes knowledge" that you may be filled with the fullness of God."¹

Wanna know how God does His thing on earth? He reveals His presence to people through His Love (which He promised in John 14:21). When we walk into a room, we usher His presence into that room with us - it is a fragrance to life for those who believe... and (but?) an odor of death to those who are perishing!²

Scripture actually says that....

You can learn a lot about God's love in scripture thru the Apostle John's writing, in his 5 books in the Bible. His writings show he knew more about it than his peers...and that He was a good listener!

John was the youngest of the disciples, but you will find he is one of the most knowledgeable about spiritual matters. He mentions love (or synonyms - loved, loves) 55 times in his gospel, and 47 times in his letter of I John.

That's contrasted with Luke's gospel where Luke only mentioned love 14 times, & not once in the Book of Acts though it is implied throughout.. He referred to himself as the 'disciple whom Jesus loved five times.' John gave us the future in his book of Revelation...

No doubt our highest calling is to love! It comes right after the calling to be holy, "without which no man shall see God!"³ I Cor 6:14 ESV says "act like a man... Do all that you do with love!"

God took a man dubbed "son of thunder" and taught him love! There's hope for all of us! Due to limits on space here, study John's books that he left behind... for you!

John & all of the apostles were martyred. All of USA founders lost everything or were killed. How do USA baby believers think; they can coast thru life in personal peace & joy? No, while we the have peace of God, we are to leave peace in others by making peace between God & them! It is a "fruit"...

All the hurting and suffering people around us are looking for answers—you have them!! God's will for you is to learn peace & joy in the midst of every storm- while serving & speaking the Truth and Word.

In future days, if you embrace this wrong kind of love, you will be deceived by coming events & people!

Why? Love and unity is the banner of One World Order religion - in fact it is already! Check out a book, Better Together. It's objective is to unite Christians with Islam & Catholics. Get busy!

Also, you might very well miss heaven for this is a path that leads ultimately to deception...⁴ and to the antichrist! That banner is being made for him! If this makes you flinch -Remember - You are not in charge! -

So do not have "itching ears seeking teachers of your own liking." Stick to what the Bible teaches. Pastors who love the world are at enmity with God!⁵

Ever warned about Love? It isn't fierce enough, Friend!

*A daily devotion writes 365
Scriptures on your heart!*

I belong to a Facebook group (there are many like it) that exposes doctrinal error in the church. I don't learn much that's new on there because I've studied doctrinal error as contrasted with Biblical error since 2004. And there's a lot of error, more now than ever. In my mind, we are probably in the endtimes where Paul predicted that people would 'have itching ears and accumulate teachers of their own liking.'⁶ Not only denominational but in movements like charismatic groups also.

Lately though, I've considered dropping out of that group and here's why!

Moses missed the promised land...

You're no doubt asking, WHAT does that have to do with today? Every.Thing...!

You see, I've learned a thing or two in studying all this error. It's not that anyone is wrong on what they post in this group! Quite the contrary and scripture tells us to expose the unfruitful works of darkness! However.

Moses.

Scripture says that the people of Israel were living in the wilderness because they lacked faith, except Joshua and Aaron, to go into the land God had promised them and later brought them to it. So that generation were being punished over 40 years. Twice they ran out water in the desert for themselves and their herds of sheep and cattle. So God instructed Moses to strike a particular rock, and water gushed forth meeting all their needs.

Things were different later on when they also ran out of water. They bitterly accused Moses of leading them out there to die. He also got upset, and according to Ps. 106:33,

'He spoke unadvisedly with his lips.'

But he wasn't finished. This time God had given him different instructions... and he ignored them – doing his own thing! (We kind of understand...)

This time, Moses did what he had done before and water gushed forth again. So what happened? God had told him this time, to speak to the rock!

So this faithful man in everything til then, was now wrong. So what's wrong with Moses being wrong this time...? 7

It's very important you don't miss this!

The people were wrong for sure, bitterly accusing Moses and exhibiting no faith, though God had been faithful to all of them, providing manna & quail falling from the skies to eat, and providing water.

So what's the problem here...?

Everybody was wrong now, leaving exactly zero of who was doing right! His language was no longer right either. Above!

The balance tilted to the wrong side only, which LEFT. NO. ONE. RIGHT...!!!

This brings me to my point of why I might drop out of said group. If people accurately find error, but rarely - if ever- DO what they're commanded, which is to Go....Go....Go...out of the church house and "into the world" with "Good" News (instead of the bad news that they're accustomed to), No one is right anymore! Remember... Moses didn't make it!

Affectionately, Sharon Jax

Ask Agatha – What Matters in This World?

Dear Agatha: Hi Agatha. I am a father of 3 adolescent children. I'm trying to teach them 'why' when I grew up, America was so different than now. I can't seem to articulate the right words. Can you give me some pointers...? Eric.

Dear Eric: Oh, so many ways. I just read where people in a car threw a dog on a chain out their car window! That is heartless! Speaking of heartless, scripture uses that word in II Timothy 3:1-5 ESV in describing "the last days " It says people will be lovers of themselves, of money, proud, abusive, disobeying parents, ...ungrateful (wanting FREE stuff!) unholy, heartless, no self control, brutal, not loving good (calling evil good!), treachery, reckless...loving the appearance of godliness (these go to church!) but denying the power thereof. Then, it says, AVOID SUCH PEOPLE. Hello? That would be difficult in today's world...!

I only took some of the things named there! But you can take the antonym of each one, and get answers for your children! My grandparents' word was sure! Power and Greed runs the political machine today in America. Patriots are viewed with disdain now...

The flag was respected and never allowed to fall on the ground - now athletes sling it down before masses of crowds & on TV. They kneel at football games, while team loyalty-taught in High School - is often considered racism.

I just know I never heard of this kind of cruelty mentioned here, years ago!

Freedom is not FREE. Men & women paid for it on bloody battlefields. People no longer appreciate that...

Twenty, 20, ALL POTUS democratic candidates are currently pandering for votes by offering FREE stuff...THIS says a lot how far we've fallen from our founders' Ideals. Which brings me to "ideas," which are now found threatening on College campuses!!

I dread to paint a dismal picture... but unless we return to IDEAS themselves Precisely God's- America is lost. God's Ideals. Exercise your mind. Brains Matter™
