When Disappointment Comes....

How do we respond when things don't go as we want them, or as planned...? That's when disappointment arrives.

I am no stranger to disappointment—I used to say it was my partner ...in relationships, or in dreams, in people....But I was very negative when I was younger.And I had no guidance.

So what do you do?

Do you compromise your goals and just settle for things as they are? Or do you just quit hoping there is something better.. for you?

While people around me seemed to find their goals to work out, mine seemed to fail.

When I matured and I learned how to make better choices, (I liked to read) things seemed to go better.

However, we cannot escape disappointment in life! It comes with it! Just take a look at how many uncertainties or troubles surround us...

Finances, the future, family and gov't issues are weighing us down daily – if we don't have trust in something as big as God...and even if!

Disappointment in leaders and leaders of the church for their utter silence against rising evil. Just church as usual... and prayers seemingly unanswered!

What do we do then?

Well I have answers to that – but you may not like it.

Just be your true SELF. Be who you were meant to be... How?

The same way I did...!
If it worked for me, it will work for anyone.

But first, I want to tell you a story. It is a true story from the Bible.

Jesus had friends He frequented often. It was a family of a father and two grown daughters.It doesn't say if their mother died or?.

The father's name is Lazurus and daughters were Mary & Martha. This story is told in the Gospel of John, eleven. The two daughters are very different in nature b but devoted to Jesus.

Jesus was in middle his ministry elsewhere, when Lazurus died.The girls alert Jesus before he died, that Jesus need to come pray for him.

But Jesus was busy healing people, and He waited for four days to arrive. Well, Lazurus had been dead for four days when He arrived!

The girls both said to Jesus, that if He had been there – He could have saved their Dad! But Jesus said it was for the glory of God.

They had no clue what Jesus' plan was!

But when Jesus saw the distressed people at Lazurus' grave and the girls both mourning, it says "Jesus wept."

Shortest verse in the Bible – full of emotion! He wept at what death does....He would fix it!

The gals had a load of Disappointment! Jesus called Lazurus from the grave. He came forth!

We don't know what we don't know.....

But God knows....
But are we ready to trust Him with our future? Really? Most of us are NOT...We always think we know for our lives!Wrongly.

This is what I did....
I saw my choices had been bad. I needed guidance. I chose God, via a book I was reading .It was the best choice of My entire life!

I needed answers! To life, troubles and Relationships...I got those from studying His words in holy scripture. People say its ancient & untrue anymore.

I say it changed my life....! Fulfilling me in every way.Some people envy me for having children who are responsible citizens, believers,not on drugs or in jail or prison. It didn't just happen...It occurred cause I got the counsel I needed when we reared them and followed parenting that I learned in the Bible.

I ran a business in Atlanta, traveling USA for almost 20 years.Bred 7 Arabian horses. Met the Queen! That didn't occur by mistake-It was God fulfilling my life because He knew BEST-a youthRunaway on the streets carrying a gun, and in jail.

I am just an ordinary woman who has led an Extraordinary life.You Can Too! If you give over your life to God Who made you and knows what you are made for.....

You cannot do that by yourself! It takes complete trust in Him and His plan. Surrender your life to God now....

A NEW Commandment...

Most people don't know that Jesus gave His disciples (and us too) a NEW Commandment. What's new about it?

Scripture does give us the recipe of Love that we don't have! It calls it the R Royal Law. And Jesus further defines in John 13:34,35:

"A new commandment I give to you, That you love another, just as I have Loved you, you also are to love one another." Most people take this statement of Jesus as just more of the same! We're to love our neighbors and God.... Well, Jesus is talking to His disciples before the cross. And the secondary thing –the word AS is in there.

He wants our love to be intense & fiery & sacrificial, like His! Only God's people can ever achieve that, because worldly love is tainted...with SIN! Only His love is pure. Holy. Little children Have this innocence -but we are killing them by the millions... the only innocence left on this earth... Just my opinion here! But I will say it.

We have a group of seven or eight people that has met on Fridays, for over ten years. The one that started it just died last year. We love each other with this fierce love, uniquely dedicated to each other in friendship, prayer & support via encouragement.

Family Love is similar to this sacrificial Love. A mother's Love, for example. It is a little bit of heaven....

God's innocent Love is such a high subject that I don't feel worthy to discuss it. It is sacrificial & unselfish, as Jesus demonstrated it on the cross.

It is so tainted by Main Street Media Hollywood and television by sex, due to their lack of understanding of any other love! All entertainment is about sex and bed-hopping..

In this group, we don't always agree on issues, but we are usually on the same page. Elders in the first church of Acts didn't always agree either, yet they worked miracles!

"Agreement" is an important concept in the Bible. This is what Jesus in scripture says about agreement:

"Again, I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything they ask, it will be done for them, by my Father in heaven." Matt.18:19 I read a passage of the same verse that said this: "...if two of you make a symphony together, you shall have what you ask..." Why? Because the Greek word for agree is sumphono, from which we get the word "symphony"

James - the half-brother of Jesus—he called it the Royal Law and wrote about people who have this love, are attentive & sacrificial in ministry to the poor and needy... an elevated subject in his mind.

Love should be elevated in our own minds, but not the kind that contemporary churches preach - sloppy agape! Or, the world which never thinks believers should criticize or fault. Real Love uses discernment and abhors evil, per Rom.12,Ps.97:10.

Dear Agatha - No Love Here....

Dear Agatha: My pals that I hang around are so afraid of showing affection. They don't wanna be accused of being gay! Can you help? Anne Dearest Anne: You need new friends who are not so fearful of people. But it is what it is, right now....

You must be examples to them by just being yourself, unafraid of what people think or say. It is society that has shaped people's minds thru television-TV, most of their lives. And a pitiful kind of love...weak and void.

Of course, it's the devil! He has come for nothing But to kill relationships, friendships, marriages & families & personal lives.

Rob us of our faith and businesses and friends!

Destroy good churches and ministries-it goes on.

He is the god of this world, so Jesus said. So he's powerful ...more powerful than you, Dear One! You need a source of more powerful than him – and it is available to you!

Invite Jesus to come live inside your heart - He is strong for you and is stronger than the devil.

He will send you the Holy Spirit in (Acts 1:8) to Empower you.

Jesus said He came to give us abundant lives – don't settle for any less than that! The devil will tell you, it's not for you!....

He is a liar and the father of them. And He said followers who believe his lies, have a devil as their father.

Yes, if you want victory & triumph, in you must gain it. It is worth it all, Friend!

The first years of my life were tragic, because on top of all this, I made poor choices but my choice to choose God over the devil changed my life. Amen and Amen.
